To whom it may concern.

Jason provided his entertainment services for the Australia Day Gala Dinner at the Australia High Commission London in 2011, 2012 and 2013. Jason's professional attitude and ability to select the right music to entertain our guests at these prestigious dinners contributed significantly to the overall success of the events. It was a pleasure to work with Jason and I would highly recommend his services to others interested in hiring an entertainment professional for black tie events in the future.

Yours sincerely,
